*All levels of basketball camp will instruct players in basketball fundamentals specific to that player’s level. The philosophy of all camps is to have sessions throughout the summer to encourage players to develop skills that become habits over a period of time. The coaches of all of the respective teams in the two middle schools and the high schools will be at their individual player’s camps. This will give the players and coaches a head start on the upcoming season. The high school coaches will run the camps for boys entering grades 2-5. These camps will have an emphasis on shooting.
